President's Report July/ luglio

Hello Club Members

July Edition, I'm pleased to share an update on our society's activities, progress, and upcoming plans.

Highlights

- Membership Engagement: We welcomed three new members last month: Dominic and June Vella, and Dennis Damiani
- Facility Updates: Routine maintenance is being done. New picnic tables are being ordered to replace the old ones. Sealcoat of the roof is scheduled for July 8th weather permitting. Miscellaneous indoor plumbing upgrades were completed. Clean-up and organization of the indoor upstairs bocce area is still to be scheduled once the weather cools down.

June Events & Activities

- Spaghetti Dinner: Our first Aglio e Olio dinner was a great success considering the weather we had. We sold just over 600 dinners and 650 sausage links, plus salad and bread. Bakery brought in $599.00. Thank you again to all that volunteered.
- AICS PICNIC- Our picnic had 95 people signed up. The weather was perfect, food was delicious and everyone had a great time.
- Queen of Hearts- Every Monday starting at 5pm. The current pot as of 6/28/26 is over $15,000.00. We wish you luck. Food is available for purchase certain nights. Check our Facebook for the weekly menu. If you have a meal idea and would like to volunteer and help cook with one of our six kitchen mangers please let us know.
- Festa meeting: Next festa meeting will be Wednesday July 15th, 7pm, please attend if you would like to be involved with our festa. Contact Christina Hayden or Dan Brandolino for volunteering.

AICS Scholarship- We received 12 scholarship applications this year. The committee will be reviewing them soon and announcing the winners. Good luck to all who applied. A Personal Message

As we prepare to celebrate Americas 250th anniversary, I would like to reflect on our heritage in this country. The opportunities given to us and one of them was building this club. We are very fortunate to have it. We take great pride in leading our club. We do this for our current and future members. But a part of us do it for our past members. I reflect on the days when we did sing-alongs. So many Italian songs were sung from the heart, the one song I remember being sung the loudest and proudest was "God Bless America". So with that I wish you a Happy 4th of July, God bless America and God bless our club.

As America celebrates it's 250th birthday, it is interesting to note that several Italian and Italian-born thinkers influenced the ideas that eventually shaped American constitutional principles.

William Paca (1740-1799), was an American Founding Father, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, the third governor of Maryland and a federal judge. As a wealthy attorney and plantation owner, he served as a crucial strategist and leader of the Patriot cause in Maryland during the American Revolution. He is credited with helping to establish the new American government. His family is believed to have originated in the Abruzzo region of Italy possibly in the Chieti area, but this has not been proven. A common reoccurring first name in family is "Aquila" which was a name William Paca gave to his own son.

Filippo (Phillip) Mazzei (1730-1816), was born in Tuscany and immigrated to the United states in 1773 at the age of 43 years. He was an Italian physician, philosopher, diplomat, winemaker, merchant, and author. He was a close friend and neighbor of Thomas Jefferson and his Enlightenment philosophies helped to inspire the core language of the Declaration of Independence. In 1774, Mazzei published an article in The Virginia Gazette stating, "Tutti gli uomini sono per natura egualmente liberi e indipendenti" ("All men are by nature equally free and independent"). Thomas Jefferson directly paraphrased this phrase when writing the immortal line "all men are created equal".

Niccolo Machiavelli (1469-1527), advocated civic virtue, citizen participation and checks on concentrated power. American founders John Adams and James Madison were familiar with his writings and were influenced by them.

Cesare Beccaria (1738-1794) was the author of On Crimes and Punishments and argued against arbitrary punishment and promoted due process and proportional justice. His ideas influenced protections in our Constitution and Bill of Rights, particularly the Eighth Amendment's prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT...

On Thursday, June 11th, we held our “Bonus” spaghetti dinner featuring aglio e olio (garlic & oil) pasta and grilled Italian sausage. It was our first time offering this type of dinner to the public and we’re happy to say it was a hit! We received rave reviews on social media and people asked if we would do it again in July. But we need a rest, so no spaghetti dinners until September. Thanks to our dedicated volunteers we served 603 dinners and 657 orders of sausage. Many patrons said that this dinner brought back fond memories of their moms and grandmas and others were trying pasta aglio e olio for the first time. This is what AICS is all about, sharing our culture and heritage with the community.

Many friends and family gathered together on June 15th to honor Ted Micci at his 105th Birthday Celebration. Ted was pleasantly surprised to see so many familiar faces and he tried to take time to speak with everyone. We enjoyed cake, honored his military service, had lots of laughs and did some reminiscing. Birthday blessings to our oldest member and in Ted’s words, “God willing, lets do this again next year!”

Our club picnic was held on Saturday, June 20th and we were greeted by sunny skies and pleasant weather. Picnic-goers enjoyed a delicious BBQ with all the fixin’s and a delectable spread of home-made desserts. There was music, games and the bar had lemonade specials. It was a fun day for our club members to visit and enjoy each others company.
